THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

April 21, 1983

The President today announced his intention to nominate Richard Lee Armitage to be an Assistant Secretary of Defense (International Security Affairs). He would succeed Francis J. West.

Since 1981, Mr. Armitage has been serving as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (International Security Affairs for East Asia and Pacific Affairs). Previously, he was Administrative Assistant to Senator Robert Dole (R-Kans.) in 1978-79; Partner, SEA-THAI, Ltd., an import-export business in Bangkok, in 1976-78; Senior Management Consultant to the Department of Defense in 1975-76; and was an advisor to the U.S. Defense Attache Office in Saigon in 1973-75.

Mr. Armitage graduated from the United States Naval Academy (B.S., 1967). He was initially assigned to a U.S. Navy destroyer engaged in operations off the coast of Vietnam and subsequently served three in-country tours in Vietnam and an assignment as an instructor at the Naval Amphibious School. He resigned from the Navy in 1973.

Mr. Armitage is married, has six children, and resides in Fairfax, Virginia. He was born April 26, 1945, in Boston, Massachusetts.

MEMORANDUM FOR DIANNA G. HOLLAND

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Appointment of Richard F. Hohlt to the Peace Corps Advisory Council

I have reviewed the Personal Data Statement submitted by Richard F. Hohlt for appointment to the Peace Corps Advisory Council. Appointment of up to 30 persons by the President to this advisory committee is authorized by Executive Order 12412 (March 29, 1983). The Council is to advise the President and Peace Corps Director on initiatives to implement the Peace Corps Act; members serve without compensation. Neither the holdings nor associations revealed on the PDS suggest any conflict with the duties of a member of the Council, and accordingly I see no legal objection to the appointment.
